NUMB. 3276

FRIDAY, NOVEMBER 9, 1744.

Rome, October 24.

A Great Number of Expreſſes arrive here daily from all Parts; but we are ſtill as uncertain as ever, with regard to the Retreat of the Auſtrian Army, which has been now expected every Day for a Fortnight together. A great Number of Barks were got together at Santo Polo, in order to have ported the ſick and wounded Auſtrians, to the Num- 2500, but were again countermanded. They ow getting together a great Number of Waggons, ich they are to be carried to Civita Vecchia, where rd of 300 Soldiers will be poſted for their Security. ave begun tranſporting them in this Manner this Day; and Abundance of them died before they got half Way to their Journey's End. About a land Horſe have juſt now paſſed by our Walls for o; and the Report is very ſtrong, that Prince owitz will march To-morrow with all his Forces. Thing is certain, that we ſhall know the Truth of when To-morrow comes. Laſt Week the King of wo Sicilies aſſiſted at Veletri at the Funeral of the d'Atriſco, Grandee of Spain, and General of the ſh Horſe. After he came back, his Majeſty com- d of his Side and Head, and was the next Day of a Fever; upon which he has been removed to a little Town at the Diſtance of Seven Miles from ri; where, it is ſaid, he is now much better. Car- Furraw, a Neopolitan, died here this Morning, aged ſo that there are now two Hats vacant in the Sa- College, beſides the Three which the Pope has re- in Petto.

rence, October 24. A Council of War was held here e 18th, in Conſequence of which, Orders were im- ately iſſued for completeing the two Regiments of of Pandolfini and Capponi; and augmenting, to oo Men, the Regiment of Horſe of Monti. General n Breithwitz has Orders to levy a new Regiment; Officers of which are left to his own Nomination. intend likewiſe to add 15 Men to each Company of Tuſcan and Lorrain Guards; and are preparing to e ſeveral independent Companies into new Reg- ts. All theſe military Motions are owing to ſome arations of the Court of Spain, that ſeem to inſ- e her having Deſigns upon this State; which, poſ- , ſhe may be oblig'd to lay aſide for the preſent, in Things ſhould take a very favourable Turn for the g of Sardinia; there being then no Sort of Doubt, Prince Lobkowitz will return to his firſt Deſign, as as the Seaſon of the Year will permit.

enna, October 28. Orders have been diſpatched to ce Charles of Lorrain, to detach 10,000 Men from Army, to join Count Bathiani, in order to put a Stop he Motions of the Imperialiſts. As we are hourly xpectation of a Battle, the Queen has ordered ſolemn yers to implore the Benediction of God upon her ns. It is ſaid, that a Train of Artillery will be ſent, few Days, to Count Barhiani, with a great Convoy mmunition and Proviſions. The Pruſſians are retired of that Part of Sileſia, which was left to the Queen the Treaty of Breſlau; ſo that we are no longer in on that Side, or, at leaſt, not in ſo much Pain as we re. The laſt Advices from Bohemia aſſure us, that Saxons are 24,000 complete; and we expect that will ſuddenly be reinforc'd by Six or 8000 more, e his Poliſh Majeſty has diſclared to this Court, that will exert the whole Force of his Electorate, for the ſervation of the Kingdom of Bohemia. We expect, h great Impatience, the Arrival of a Courier from ſcow; becauſe it is hoped, he will bring a Confirm- on of the News we lately received, that a Treaty was ually concluded with that Court, for the Support of Common Cauſe; in Conſequence of which, Count ſtucheff is to make ſome Propoſals of great Import- e, to the Dyet at Grodno. Another Manifeſto, of an raordinary Nature, is to the Preſs, and will be ſpeedily liſhed, by Way of Reply, as is ſuppoſed, to the late ſwer of the Court of Berlin; and it is ſaid, the Facts vanc'd in it, will be ſupported by a great Number of ginal Papers.

Extract of a private Letter from a French Officer in the Imperial Army, dated from Muldorff, on the Inn, November 2, 1744.

'We began to march on the 22d, under the Com- mand of Lieutenant-General Count de Segur, without 'making any Halt in our March. We have been here, 'now, four Days; the Enemy retiring with much Pre- 'cipitation, on our Approach, to the other Side the 'River, leaving the Bridge on Fire behind them. We 'have put a good Gariſon into the Place, and are en- 'camped in its Neighbourhood. The young Prince of 'Heſſe has joined us here, with all the Troops under 'his Command. The Imperial Army, commanded by 'the Emperor in Perſon, advanc'd Yeſterday to Amp- 'fing; his Imperial Majeſty has fix'd his Head Quarters 'at the Caſtle of Zangberg, from whence he came this 'Morning, on Horſeback, and made the Tour of our 'Camp. The Affair of Waſſerbourg is not yet deter- 'min'd; but the Prince of Saxe Hildberghauſen is left 'before it with 10 Battalions, two Regiments of Dra- 'goons, and ſuch a Train of Artillery, as has been 'thought neceſſary for forcing the Works which the 'Enemy have thrown up there. We do not at all doubt 'that his Highneſs will do his Work; ſince he is eſteem- 'ed one of the beſt Officers in Germany, and exceedingly 'belov'd by the Army. The Enemy is ſtill poſſeſs'd of 'the Head of the Bridge of Maldorff, and have ſeveral 'Detachments poſted along the River, as far as Waſſer- 'bourg. It is ſaid, that General Barhiani, who com- 'mands in Chief, has fix'd his Head Quarters at Burck- 'hauſen. We do not know, as yet, where we ſhall 'march next; but, in all probability, we ſhall puſh on 'as faſt as we can, in order to do as much as lies in our 'Power, before the Enemy can receive the Succours 'they expect from Auſtria and Bohemia; which are ſaid 'to fall little ſhort of 10,000 Men.'

Bruſſels, November 9. We were in the utmoſt Conſternation here, on the 9th of this Month, on Account of the Relapſe of her Serene Highneſs, the Archduchеſs, who is univerſally beloved. Her Serene Highneſs was then ſo ill, that ſhe receiv'd all the Sacraments in the Morning, but ſhe finds herſelf much better. As there are none, however, admitted into her Chamber, but ſuch as are indiſpenſibly neceſſary for her Service, we ſtill continue to be in great Pain. On the 7th there was held here a grand Council of State, at which all the Counſellors, both of the Sword, and Robe, aſſiſted. Their Deliberations turn'd, as we apprehend, on the Nomination of certain Perſons, into whoſe Hands the Adminiſtration of the Government ſhould be veſted, in caſe that Princeſs ſhould die; and the Count de Caunitz, her Prime Miniſter, and Grand Maſter of her Houſhould, diſpatched, the ſame Day, an Expreſs to Vienna, to acquaint the Queen, our Sovereign, with the preſent Situation of Things, and to deſire new Inſtructions. His Highneſs the Duke of Aremberg, has, in the mean time, put off his Departure. We ſtill talk of the ſpeedy March of the Hanoverian Troops towards the Lower Rhine. Count Maurice of Saxony, notwithſtanding he continues much indiſpos'd, is embark'd for Holland.

Hague, October 14. According to our laſt Advices from Hambourg, the Dyet of Grodno proceeds with the utmoſt Unanimity; ſo that we expect, ſpeedily, to hear ſome important News from that Quarter. The Letters from Vienna and Bohemia arrive very irregular, which is attributed to the Imperialiſts being again Maſters of Bavaria. There are ſome Letters from Franckfort, which ſay, that the Auſtrians have abandon'd Waſſerbourg; but as they do not ſay when, we do not give much Credit to this Piece of News. It is certain, that the Town of Fribourg had not ſurrendered on the 5th; and it is the general Opinion of all Military People, that when it does ſurrender, the Caſtles will be able to hold out three Weeks. According to ſome private Letters from Turin, the King of Sardinia has reſolv'd to inveſt Demont, notwithſtanding the advanc'd Seaſon of the Year.

HOME PORTS.

Deal, November 7. Wind S. W. Came down the Great Britain Privateer, Captain Wilſon, on a Cruize; and remain with the Princeſs Louiſa Man of War, and the Outward-bound as per laſt.

LONDON.

According to Letters, of the freſheſt Date, from Copenhagen, 100 Engliſh Ships, under the Convoy of a Man of War, paſſed the Sound on the 26th of laſt Month.

They write from Valenciennes, that notwithſtanding they have already 6000 Men in that Town, 5000 more have been ordered thither lately; from whence it is ſuſpected, that the Marſhal Count de Saxe has ſtill ſomething in View, before he goes into Winter Quarters.

His Sardinian Majeſty has ordered a great Number of Gold Medals to be ſtruck, at Turin, on the raiſing the Siege of Coni; which are to be diſtributed among the Officers of the Gariſon, and the principal Inhabitants of the Place, to preſerve the Memory of the glorious Defence they have made.

The Prince Edward, Dawſon, and the Duke of Richmond, Joad, ſailed from Leghorn the 24th of October, N. S. for London.

The Betty, Barter, from Antigua for London, who was expected at Whitehaven ſome Time ſince, is taken by a French Merchant-Ship from the Weſt Indies, and carried into Bourdeaux.

Yeſterday died, at his Houſe in Great Ruſſel-ſtreet, Bloomsbury, Robert Knight, Eſq; Father of Robert Knight, Eſq; Member of Parliament for Great Grimsby in Lincolnſhire.

Orders are given to the City Workmen to rebuild the South-Eaſt Part of the Fleet Market, which was burnt down in 1743.

Yeſterday a Woman who us'd to clean Shoes about Charing-Croſs, was found drowned in the Meuſe Horſe Pond; no Marks of Violence being found upon her, 'tis believed ſhe miſtook her Way.

Laſt Week died at Bath, of an Inflammation in his Lungs, Lieutenant-Colonel Stephen Downes, of Colonel Jefferies's Regiment of Marines.

Yeſterday the Hon. John Spencer, Eſq; took the Oaths in the High Court of Chancery, to qualify himſelf as Ranger of Great and Little Windſor Park, in the room of his Grandmother, the late Ducheſs of Marlborough.

Laſt Monday died, in advanced Years, at his Houſe in New Bondſtreet, the Reverend Mr. Du Caſſe, a French Miniſter.

Yeſterday Jane Morgan was committed to Woodſtreet Compter, for ſtealing out of the Shop of Mr. Richard Panton, of Checquer Alley in Whitecroſs-ſtreet, a Parcel of Gold Thread, Value 4 l.

Elſeneur, November 3. N. S. We had a violent Storm here on Sunday, which continued till Yeſterday, the Wind at South. There was ſome Damage among the Shipping, but not very material. Capt. Stephen Hooper, of the Arabella, and Capt. John Bonner, have fared the worſt of any we have yet heard of; but many of the Boats are ſtaved, and others drove away. Capt. Thomas Saunderſon has been a-Ground on the South End of Ocland, and was obliged to throw over-board 15 Tons of Iron. There is a large Swediſh Veſſel, Capt. Lundburg, for Lisbon, a-ſhore on Dragoe; but what Damage ſhe has receiv'd is not known. The greateſt Part of the Fleet that put back to Copenhagen, are now coming down.

We think it neceſſary to inform the Publick, that at Meſſieurs LOWE and BERRY's State-Lottery-Office in Ludgate-ſtreet, Tickets, Shares, and Chances of Shares, are ſold in all the cheap Methods that can be contriv'd by any Perſon whatſoever for the Advantage of the Purchaſers; ſo that for ſo ſmall a Sum as 7 s. 6 d. they may have the Opportunity of gaining 625 l. for 15 s. 1250 l. for 1 l. 10 s. 2500 l. for 3 l. 5000 l. and for 5 l. 14 s. the capital Prize of 10,000 l. which Money will be paid as ſoon as drawn. As the Lottery muſt begin drawing in 16 Days time; therefore 'tis adviſeable for thoſe who deſire to partake of the above Advantages, to be expeditious in buying at their only State-Lottery-Office, leſt the Price of Tickets ſhould conſiderably advance, of which there ſeems, at preſent, a great Probability.
